

Feminists Deliver 2019

Feminists Deliver is a grassroots collaboration of British Columbia-based self-identified women and girls and the organizations that support them that have come together, on account of the 2019 Women Deliver Conference taking place in Vancouver, to shed a light on the urgent issues facing marginalized communities in BC and build connections between grassroots feminists in BC and those working globally by hosting a 4 day conference and tradeshow from June 3 – 6, 2019. Our approach is decolonial, intersectional, and anti-oppression. Our membership is diverse and inclusive of all people that experience marginalization on the basis of gender.

Feminists Deliver Artisans Market

Objective: The objective of the Feminists Deliver artisans market is to showcase social enterprises and self-identified women artisans who are:

- Providing opportunities for income as well as a sense of purpose and connection for women who have multiple barriers to employment
- Selling products or services that are sharing the messages and values that are in alignment with Feminists Deliver's mission and intersectional, anti-oppression, decolonial approach.

Priority of Vendors: Space in the market will be allocated on a first come first served basis with priority given to social enterprises and self-identified women artisans who:

- address issues of marginalization on the basis of gender from a decolonial, intersectional, and anti-oppression approach.
- have a connection to Feminists Deliver Working Group members (community organisations)
- are Indigenous, Black and/or of colour.
